

Company News

January 2010 - EV are pleased to announce the commissioning of the first overground endoscope to Ireland.

29th January 2010 - We are pleased to announce the launch of our on line ordering system, simply click the link to the on line store and start shopping today. If you are already an account customer with EV simply order on account, the favorites holds the history of items previously ordered, simply click on and place your repeat order quickly. Lookout for special offers and discounted lines.

April 2010 - We have located new premises in Shrewsbury and will be moving in the summer, we will advise you of our new location in due course. This is in line with the Directors growth expectations for EV.

6th April 2010 - We welcome Sian Whitehouse to our customer service team. Sian joins our expanding service team to support Lisa and to ensure that we continue to meet your needs.